

§ 17.61

in case of an employee not entitled to basic pay, other authorized pay.

Person means any natural person or persons, profit or nonprofit corporations, partnership, association, trust, estate, government or government subdivision or other entity which is capable of owing a debt to the Government. For purposes of the interest provisions, person does not include an agency of the United States Government, a State government, or a unit of general local government.

Salary offset means a deduction from the pay of an employee without his or her consent to satisfy a debt. Salary offset is one type of administrative offset which may be used by the Department in the collection of claims.

Secretary means the Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development or his or her designee.

United States includes an agency of the United States.

Waiver means the cancellation, remission, forgiveness, or non-recovery of a debt allegedly owed by an employee of an agency as permitted or required by 5 U.S.C. 5584, 10 U.S.C. 2774, 32 U.S.C. 716, or 5 U.S.C. 8346(b), or any other law.

§ 17.61 Incorporation of joint standards by reference.

All administrative actions to collect claims arising out of the activities of the Department shall be performed in accordance with the applicable standards prescribed in 4 CFR parts 101 through 105, which are incorporated by reference and supplemented in this subpart.

§ 17.62 Subdivision and joining of claims.

(a) A debtor's liability arising from a particular transaction or contract shall be considered as a single claim in determining whether the claim is one not exceeding $100,000 exclusive of interest for the purpose of compromise or termination of collection action. Such a claim may not be subdivided to avoid the monetary ceiling established by the Act.

24 CFR Subtitle A (4-1-04 Edition)

(b) Joining of two or more single claims in a demand upon a particular debtor for payment totaling more than $100,000 does not preclude compromise or termination of collection action with respect to any one of such claims that does not exceed $100,000 exclusive of interest.

[59 FR 34579, July 6, 1994]

§ 17.63 Authority of offices to attempt collection of claims.

The head of each office shall designate a claims collection officer, who shall attempt to collect in full all claims of the Department for money or property arising out of the activities of such office. Each claims collection officer shall establish and currently maintain a file with regard to each claim for which collection activities are undertaken.

§ 17.64 Referral of claims to the Assistant Secretary for Administration.

(a) Authority of the Assistant Secretary for Administration. The Assistant Secretary for Administration shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Secretary to compromise, or to suspend or terminate collection action on all Department claims not exceeding $100,000 exclusive of interest, except as provided in § 17.65 and paragraph (b) of this section. When initial attempts at collection by the office having responsibility for such claims have not been fully successful, the claim file shall be forwarded to the Assistant Secretary for Administration for further administrative collection procedures. Claims shall be referred to the Assistant Secretary for Administration well within the applicable statute of limitations (28 U.S.C. 2415 and 2416), but in no event more than 2 years after the claims accrued.

(b) Exclusions. There shall be no compromised or terminated collection action with respect to any claim: (1) As to which there is an indication of fraud, the presentation of a false claim, or misrepresentation on the part of the debtor or any other party having an interest in the claim; (2) based in whole or in part on conduct in violation of ### § 17.65 Authority of offices to compromise claims or suspend or terminate collection action.

(a) Small claims. The Assistant Secretary for Administration periodically shall establish and disseminate to claims collection officers a maximum dollar amount up to which claims collection officers are authorized to compromise a claim or suspend or terminate collection action on a claim.

(b) Claims arising under certain programs. (1) The office primarily responsible for the following programs of the Department is authorized, in those cases where initial collection attempts are not wholly successful, to compromise or to suspend or terminate collection action on claims not exceeding $100,000 with respect to:

(i) A claim under title I of the National Housing Act;

(ii) A claim on a rehabilitation loan account under section 312 of the Housing Act of 1964;

(iii) A claim against tenants or former tenants of properties acquired by, or under the custody of, the Secretary or held by him as mortgagee in possession; or

(iv) A claim arising out of the operational (nonadministrative) activities of the Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA).

(2) However, no office shall undertake to compromise or terminate any collection action excluded under § 17.64(b).

§ 17.66 Department claims officer.

The Assistant Secretary for Administration shall designate a subordinate official as Department Claims Officer, who shall be responsible for the establishment and maintenance of procedures within the Department relating to the collection of claims and the coordination of all collection activities in all Department offices.

[40 FR 28599, July 7, 1975. Redesignated at 49 FR 32349, Aug. 14, 1984]

§ 17.67 Claims files.

Each claims collection officer is responsible for obtaining current credit data about each person against whom a claim is pending in his office. The file shall be kept reasonably up to date by the Department Claims Officer for claims referred to the Assistant Secretary for Administration for collection. Such credit data may take the form of: (a) A commercial credit report, (b) an agency investigative report showing the debtor's assets and liabilities and his income and expenses, (c) the individual debtor's own financial statement executed under penalty of perjury reflecting his assets and liabilities and his income and expenses, or (d) an audited balance sheet of a corporate debtor. The file should also contain a checklist or brief summary of actions taken to collect or comprise a claim.

§ 17.68 Monthly report of collection action.

The Department Claims Officer shall make a monthly report to the Assistant Secretary for Administration and all offices that have referred claims for collection. The report should contain the following information as a minimum:

(a) All outstanding claims referred to the Assistant Secretary for Administration for administrative collection, including the name and address of the debtor, the amount of the claim, the date the claim accrued, the basis of the claim, the office referring the claim, and the current progress of collection activities.

(b) All claims compromised or on which collection has been suspended or terminated or referred to GAO or Justice for further collection action during the month. The collection action taken and the basis for the action should be indicated.

(c) All claims referred to the Department of Justice under § 17.64(a).

(d) Claims returned to this Department by the Justice Department for
